Why Choose Cremation?

Choosing cremation rather than burial does not diminish the value of the wonderful person that you have loved and lost. The remembrance of the heart, spirit and soul of your loved one is a treasure which only you and your family can truly know and honor.

We are here to help you find joy in the way you choose to celebrate and cherish their memory. Our professionally trained staff handles each cremation with the utmost care and respect.

You can have peace of mind knowing your loved ones never leave our care. Our on-site crematory enables us to control the process of cremation from start to finish, allowing us to accommodate for all faith backgrounds as well as giving you the opportunity to witness or participate in the cremation process.

Cremation does not limit your choices, but actually increases your options. We will listen to your needs, offer guidance and advice, and support your family with choices in planning a respectful and dignified service.
